

A FREE PUBLIC FORUM

Finding Hope and Healing in the Berks Heroin Epidemic

January 19, 2016 at 7 p.m.

Wilson West Middle School
Auditorium

450 Faust Road
Sinking Spring, PA

Berks County is confronting a heroin epidemic. With the right interventions, family support and treatment, heroin addiction can be overcome. Please join us on Tuesday, January 19 to:

- Learn about addiction and recovery
- Hear from nationally renowned addiction treatment experts
- Meet with local recovery organizations
- Hear one family's experience

Be a part of the discussion and the solution.

Berks HOPE

Helping Others/Providing Expertise

Berks HOPE (Helping Others/Providing Expertise) is a consortium of local and nationally renowned addiction experts and concerned community members dedicated to making the resources for fighting addiction more accessible.

Berks HOPE members include Caron Treatment Centers, Treatment Access Services Center Inc. (TASC), The Council on Chemical Abuse, Reading Health System, Penn State Health St. Joseph, Easy Does It, Common Ground Recovery Ministry, Berks County District Attorney's Office, the Governor Mifflin School District and the Berks County Office of Juvenile Probation.

Media Sponsorship provided by The Reading Eagle.

www.caron.org/BerksHOPE #BerksHOPE